

WEEKS CHEAPER POWER RATE

OLYMPIA, Wash. (U.P.)—While the federal government is subsidizing the construction of gigantic power projects in Washington, state officials are aggressively seeking rate reductions among private power concerns here. Although Washington power rates perhaps average lowest in the nation, the state department of public works is obtaining 25 to 35 per cent reductions for consumers in orders issued so far in the rate reduction program.

Election Called For County Vote On Tango Games

Residents of Lomita, Harbor City and other unincorporated area of Los Angeles county will vote December 19 on the question of prohibiting tango games in their territory, as well as on the water and power issue which concerns the San Joaquin valley. This was the order made by the board of supervisors this week in adopting a resolution of Supervisor Roger Jessup. Petitions to bring about a referendum on the emergency ordinance adopted several weeks ago have been in circulation for several weeks.

Such a move on the part of gambling interests known to be lack of tango game promotion would cost Los Angeles county taxpayers several hundred thousand dollars for a special election. The alternative for the supervisors would be to pass a regulatory ordinance, repealing the prohibitory ordinance, and giving the county officials the right to license the games in unincorporated areas. For once in your life surprise the little woman by telling her you are tired of her in that fur coat.

Building Active In Palos Verdes Region

Building activity in the Palos Verdes region, a large part of it adjoining the Torrance city limits, is more than twice as active this year as compared with 1932. Total for the first 10 months of 1933 was found to be $43,500, as against $26,985 for the corresponding period of 1932. October building permits totaled $6000, while not a single permit was issued during October a year ago. But then, of course, everyone was awaiting for the outcome of the presidential election.

Poultry Owner Loses 300 Hens

Mrs. Thomas Wilson, 2821 West 237th street, South Torrance, noticed a decrease in the number of eggs from her flock of 3000 hens recently and on November 11 a count showed that 200 of the birds had disappeared. Mrs. Wilson reported the matter to police who turned the investigation over to the farm detail of the sheriff's office. The deprecations have been going on over a period of two weeks Mrs. Wilson stated, but she was unable to give any clue to the identity of the marauders. Flag waving is okay, but nobody ever balanced a budget that way.

Lovable Rascals Paired In Great Screen Comedy

Fields and Skipworth Try to Steal Laurels From Each Other

Having stolen pictures from practically every star in Hollywood, W. C. Fields and Alton Skipworth are now trying to steal a picture from each other. These two lovable rascals are together at last in a picture called "Tillie and Gus." It will be shown Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 16-17-18, at the Torrance Theatre. Fields and Skipworth play the roles of card sharks who, after emptying wallets and dodging sheriffs all the way from Shanghai to Nome, arrive back home to find their niece and her husband practically penniless due to the skintight methods of a shyster lawyer. They decide to give the old crook a bit of his own medicine, help themselves to a fortune and bring happiness to the young couple. How they do it by means of a diving suit and an old ferry-boat furnishes the film with a score of hilarious moments. Featured with the comedy team are Baby LeRoy, Jacqueline Wells, and Clifford Jones. The picture was adapted from an original story written by Rupert Hughes.
